Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter, I wish to inform you not to be impatient, but to be patient a while longer and Mr. Michał Wróblewski will come to you, and you will have a good worker.

Now every week there are several hundred Displaced Persons who arrive here. Among them I am sure will be, if not this month, then next month, Michał Wróblewski.

Very truly yours,

Felix Furtek

P.S. I am doing everything possible in this case.

Dear Sir:

I received a letter from you over a month ago in regard to Michael Wroblewski. You expect me to be patient and wait for his arrival but it is now nine months since this has been going on.

I am in desperate need of a man at present. I would like to know if I can expect Mr. Wroblewski soon or if he isn't coming at all and I should look for help elsewhere.

Will you please let me know if you have any new information on this case?

Yours truly,
Stanley Winkus

Dear Sir:

As I have previously written in my letter to you that I am expecting a letter from Michael Wroblewski, I have received the same today.

He writes in his letter, and which letter I am enclosing as evidence that he has taken care of all necessary details, and expects to be in the United States in a short while.

I would suggest that you be patient a while longer, as I am taking good care of this case, and doing everything possible.

Very truly yours,

Felix Furtek

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter, I wish to inform you that I have written a letter to Mr. Michael Wroblewski in Germany to write me whether he has had any notification, or taken a physical examination and other examinations, and whether he was promised that he would come to this country soon.

I have sent the letter September 23rd, and am awaiting a reply from him. And for the above reason I would suggest that you be patient a little while longer, as I am doing everything possible, and will notify you of any new results as soon as possible.

I have written a letter to the Immigration Committee in New York about this case and they have written me that we may expect him shortly, but they have written the same about other cases, and they have taken several months.

Very truly yours,

Felix Furtek

what has happened. Would it be possible for you to let me if this man is still coming to America?

I would appreciate it very much if you could tell me whether he has been permantly detained or whether I should still expect him to arrive.

Yours truly,

Stanley Wirkus

Dear Sir:

Over six months ago I went to see you about obtaining a displaced person from Europe to work on the farm. Since then you have written that a Mr. Michal Wroblewski is the man that is supposed to be coming to me. As time goes by, I am wondering if he is still coming or

Szanowny Panie:

Zawiadamiam Pana że kilka tygodni temu przesłałem aplikację którą Pan podpisał do Waszyngtonu na sprowadzenie Michała Króblewskiego do Pana. Jego adres obecnie jest jak następuje: Hamburg-Blenkenese Feilding-barracks Iserbrook 518 Transport Group C.C.C.O. Germany. Obecnie on wypełnia dokumenty które od niego rząd żąda, i ja sądzę że on będzie mógł kiedy niedługo tutaj przyjechać.

Jednak niech się Pan nie niecierpliwi dlatego że w urzędach to nigdy się nie spieszy bo na wszystko mają czas. Prosiłbym również Pana o przyswanie sumę należytości $10/ tak jak przyobiecał.

Z szacunkiem,

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter, I wish to inform you that I have forwarded to the government in Washington, an application, as well as to the Immigration Commission which handles the immigration of Displaced Persons to this country, at the beginning of March.

We are trying to get to you, one Mr. Michał Próblewski who resides in the vicinity of Danbury. I cannot give you the exact time when he will come into this country, but be convinced that I have not forgotten about your case, and that I am doing everything possible in this case.

Very truly yours,

Notary Public

Kochany Panie Furtek!

Bardzo nas to ucieszyło, gdy nam kolega Nieroda F. poinformował nas tą wiadomością którą od Pana otrzymał. Otóż prosilibyśmy bardzo Pana o to gdyby było możliwością z Pańskiej strony przyczynić się z całego serca
i z całą sumiennością o pomoc w naszej emigracji do USA. Napewno wiadomo Panu bardzo dobrze o naszym życiu w niemczech,
i o naszych obecnych warunkach.
Zaznaczamy Panu ile było by to możliwością to my zgadzamy się pokryć wszystkie koszta całej naszej podróży, jak również przyjmujemy każdą pracę na roli, bo znamy się z nią bardzo dobrze.
Otóż podajemy Panu nasz dokładny adres

Dear Sir:

I saw you about getting a man to work on the farm on February 28. I am very interested in knowing what the prospects are now and when you think a man will be available. Would you please inform me by return mail what the present situation is?

Yours truly,
